Purpose

The Marra School Child Safety and Wellbeing Policy demonstrates our school's commitment to creating and maintaining a child safe and child-friendly organisation, where children and young people are safe and feel safe.

This policy provides an overview of our school's approach to implementing Ministerial Order 1359 (PDF, 363KB) which sets out how the Victorian Child Safe Standards apply in school environments.

It informs our school community of everyone's obligations to act safely and appropriately towards children and guides our processes and practices for the safety and wellbeing of students across all areas of our work.

Contextual Statement

Marra School is a new specialist school in Kalkallo located in the northern region within the city of Hume. Marra School provides educational programs for students with mild to profound intellectual disability and is open to students aged 5 to 18. The school strives to provide a highly differentiated, nurturing environment that empowers students to reach their personal best, in their learning, social and personal capabilities and in their wellbeing.

Scope

This policy:

- applies to all school staff, volunteers and contractors whether or not they work in direct contact with students. It also applies to school council members where indicated.
- applies in all physical and online school environments used by students during or outside of school hours, including other locations provided by for a student's use (for example, a school camp) and those provided through third-party providers
- should be read together with our other child safety and wellbeing policies, procedures, and codes – refer to the related school policies section below.

Statement of commitment to child safety

Marra School is a child safe organisation which welcomes all children, young people and their families.

We are committed to providing environments where our students are safe and feel safe, where their participation is valued, their views respected, and their voices are heard about decisions that affect their lives. Our child safe policies, strategies and practices are inclusive of the needs of all children and students.

We have no tolerance for child abuse and take proactive steps to identify and manage any risks of harm to students in our school environments.

We promote positive relationships between students and adults and between students and their peers. These relationships are based on trust and respect.

We take proactive steps to identify and manage any risk of harm to students in our school environment. When child safety concerns are raised or identified, we treat these seriously and respond promptly and thoroughly.

Particular attention is given to the child safety needs of Aboriginal students, those from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds, students with disabilities, those unable to live at home, children and young people who identify as lesbian, gay, bisexual, trans and gender diverse, intersex, queer, questioning and asexual (LGBTIQA+) and other students experiencing risk or vulnerability. Inappropriate or harmful behaviour targeting students based on these or other characteristics, such as racism or homophobia, are not tolerated at our school, and any instances identified will be addressed with appropriate consequences. Child safety is a shared responsibility. Every person involved in our school has an important role in promoting child safety and wellbeing and promptly raising any issues or concerns about a child's safety.

We are committed to regularly reviewing our child safe practices, and seeking input from our students, families, staff, and volunteers to inform our ongoing strategies.

Roles and responsibilities

School leadership team

Our school leadership team (comprising the principal, assistant principal/s, Year Group Leader/Coordinator and Wellbeing Leader) is responsible for ensuring that a strong child safe culture is created and maintained, and that policies and practices are effectively developed and implemented in accordance with Ministerial Order 1359.

Principals and assistant principals will:

- ensure effective child safety and wellbeing governance, policies, procedures, codes and practices are in place and followed
- model a child safe culture that facilitates the active participation of students, families and staff in promoting and improving child safety, cultural safety and wellbeing
- enable inclusive practices where the diverse needs of all students are considered
- reinforce high standards of respectful behaviour between students and adults, and between students
- promote regular open discussion on child safety issues within the school community including at leadership team meetings, staff meetings and school council meetings

- facilitate regular professional learning for staff and volunteers (where appropriate) to build deeper understandings of child safety, cultural safety, student wellbeing and prevention of, and responding to abuse
- create an environment where child safety complaints and concerns are readily raised, and no one is discouraged from reporting an allegation of child abuse to relevant authorities.

School staff and volunteers

All staff and volunteers will:

- participate in child safety and wellbeing induction and training provided by the school or the Department of Education, and always follow the school's child safety and wellbeing policies and procedures
- act in accordance with our Child Safety Code of Conduct
- identify and raise concerns about child safety issues in accordance with our Child Safety Responding and Reporting Obligations Policy and Procedures, including following the Four Critical Actions for Schools
- ensure students' views are taken seriously and their voices are heard about decisions that affect their lives
- implement inclusive practices that respond to the diverse needs of students.

School council

In performing the functions and powers given to them under the Education and Training Reform Act 2006, school council members will:

- champion and promote a child safe culture with the broader school community
- ensure that child safety is a regular agenda item at school council meetings
- undertake annual training on child safety
- approve updates to, and act in accordance with the Child Safety Code of Conduct to the extent that it applies to school council employees and members
- ensure that selection, supervision, and management practices are child safe when hiring school council employees. At our school, school council employment duties are delegated to the principal who is bound by this policy.

Specific staff child safety responsibilities

Marra School has nominated a child safety advocate to support the principal to implement our child safety policies and practices, including staff and volunteer training.

The responsibilities of the child safety advocate are outlined at Guidance for child safety champions. In addition to these roles, our child safety advocate is also responsible for:

- Co-ordinating the wellbeing team to ensure consistent and effective implementation of child safety practices

Our principal and child safety advocate are the first point of contact for child safety concerns or queries and for coordinating responses to child safety incidents.

- The child safety advocate is responsible for monitoring the school's compliance with the Child Safety and Wellbeing Policy. Anyone in our school community should approach the child safety advocate if they have any concerns about the school's compliance with the Child Safety and Wellbeing Policy.

- The child safety advocate is responsible for informing the school community about this policy, and making it publicly available
- Other specific roles and responsibilities are named in other child safety policies and procedures, including the Child Safety Code of Conduct, Child Safety Responding and Reporting Obligations (including Mandatory Reporting) Policy and Procedures, and Child Safety Risk Register.

Our school has also established a Wellbeing Team. The Wellbeing Team meet regularly to identify and respond to any ongoing matters related to child safety and wellbeing. The Student Representative Council are also given opportunity to provide input into school strategies as appropriate.

Our School Leadership team monitors the Child Safety Risk Register.

Child Safety Code of Conduct

Our Child Safety Code of Conduct sets the boundaries and expectations for appropriate behaviours between adults and students. It also clarifies behaviours that are not acceptable in our physical and online environments.

We ensure that students also know what is acceptable and what is not acceptable so that they can be clear and confident about what to expect from adults in the school.

The Child Safety Code of Conduct also includes processes to report inappropriate behaviour.

Managing risks to child safety and wellbeing

At our school we identify, assess and manage risks to child safety and wellbeing in our physical and online school environments. These risks are managed through our child safety and wellbeing policies, procedures and practices, and in our activity specific risk registers, such as those we develop for off-site overnight camps, adventure activities and facilities and services we contract through third party providers for student use.

Our Child Safety Risk Register is used to record any identified risks related to child abuse alongside actions in place to manage those risks. Our school leadership team will monitor and evaluate the effectiveness of the actions in the Child Safety Risk Register at least annually.

Marra School takes a proactive approach to managing risks to child safety and wellbeing, ensuring a highly differentiated curriculum that teaches students strategies and expectations within physical and online environments.

Establishing a culturally safe environment

At Marra School, we are committed to establishing an inclusive and culturally safe school where the strengths of Aboriginal culture, values and practices are respected.

We think about how every student can have a positive experience in a safe environment. For Aboriginal students, we recognise the link between Aboriginal culture, identity and safety and actively create opportunities for Aboriginal students and the Aboriginal community to have a voice and presence in our school planning, policies, and activities.

We have developed the following strategies to promote cultural safety in our school community:

- Our Action Plan – Aboriginal Learning, Wellbeing and Safety outlines the measures we have in place to maintain an inclusive and culturally safe school for Aboriginal children, students and their families. This plan links to the Department of Education's Marrung Aboriginal Education Plan
- Marra School equips staff, students, volunteers and the school community to acknowledge and appreciate the strengths of Aboriginal culture and understand its importance to the wellbeing and safety of Aboriginal children and students

- Measures are adopted to ensure racism is identified, confronted and not tolerated - in this instance our school references supports such as Schools Standing up to Racism
- instances of racism are addressed within the school environment with appropriate consequences
- participation and inclusion in the school by Aboriginal children, students and their families, is actively supported
- our school actively engages with Koorie Education Support Officers (KESO) to ensure culturally responsive supports and resources are available for Indigenous students and their families, fostering a sense of cultural identity, belonging, and engagement within the school community
- we support our staff to participate in the Community Understanding and Safety Training (CUST), which strengthens the capability of school staff to build more culturally inclusive practices, including embedding Aboriginal perspectives in the curriculum, and connecting with Aboriginal Community to support ongoing learning and partnership
- We utilise additional staff resources such as the Koorie teaching resources for leaders and teachers

Student empowerment

To support child safety and wellbeing at Marra School, we work to create an inclusive and supportive environment that encourages students and families to contribute to our child safety approach and understand their rights and their responsibilities.

Respectful relationships between students are reinforced and we encourage strong friendships and peer support in the school to ensure a sense of belonging through implementing our whole school approach to Respectful Relationships, implementation of School Wide Positive Behaviour Support (SWPBS) and our school values.

We inform students of their rights through our whole school approach to Respectful Relationships, Health and Human Development program, and our wellbeing curriculum, and give them the skills and confidence to recognise unsafe situations with adults or other students and to speak up and act on concerns relating to themselves or their peers. We ensure our students know who to talk to if they are worried or feeling unsafe and we encourage them to share concerns with a trusted adult at any time. Students and families can also access information on how to report concerns via the school administration team and on the school website.

Other ways we empower our students is by:

- displaying visually engaging and easy-to-read posters (e.g. posters) around the school promoting child safety, student voice and agency
- Sharing a complaints fact sheet and scenarios on our school website and in our school newsletter for students and their parents/carers
- demonstrating that our school takes students seriously by acting on their concerns, noting that what might seem unimportant to an adult may be important to a young person
- providing students with multiple avenues for communicating, including writing, drawing, and alternative augmented communication (AAC) low tech and high tech and physical forms of communication
- seeking input from students through the student representative council, Attitudes to School Survey (AToSS) and ongoing age appropriate strategies within the classroom

When the school is gathering information in relation to a complaint about alleged misconduct or abuse of a child, we will listen to the complainant's account and take them seriously, check our understanding of the complaint, support the student and keep them (and their parents and carers, as appropriate) informed about progress.

Family engagement

Our families and the school community have an important role in monitoring and promoting children's safety and wellbeing and helping children to raise any concerns.

To support family engagement, at Marra School we are committed to providing families and community with accessible information about our school's child safe policies and practices and involving them in our approach to child safety and wellbeing.

We will create opportunities for families to have input into the development and review of our child safety policies and practices and encourage them to raise any concerns and ideas for improvement.

We do this by:

- seeking input from families and the community through the school website, newsletters, school council, staff and parent meetings and via parent surveys
- Informing families and the community by ensuring all of our child safety policies and procedures will be available for students and parents on the school website
- Newsletters will inform families and the school community about any significant updates to our child safety policies or processes, and strategies or initiatives that we are taking to ensure student safety.
- PROTECT Child Safety posters will be displayed across the school in high traffic areas where parents/carers frequent.
- including families in Student Support Groups and developing individual plans for students so that there is full transparency regarding what and who will be involved in the care and education of their child.
- regularly engaging with parents, carers and students and discussing the needs of students through parent/teacher interviews, informal discussions, open days and other events
- making sure child safety information is easy to read and caters for the needs of our community, for example modifications are made for families with limited literacy skills, font size is considered for parents/carers with low vision, child safety information is translated into multiple languages to reflect our school community
- organising interpreters and translations to engage families from non-English speaking backgrounds in conversations about the school's child safety strategies

Diversity and equity

As a child safe organisation, we celebrate the rich diversity of our students, families and community and promote respectful environments that are free from discrimination. Our focus is on wellbeing and growth for all.

We recognise that every child has unique skills, strengths and experiences to draw on.

We pay particular attention to individuals and groups of children and young people in our community with additional and specific needs. This includes tailoring our child safety strategies and supports to the needs of:

- Aboriginal children and young people
- children from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds
- children and young people with disabilities
- children unable to live at home or impacted by family violence
- children and young people who identify as LGBTIQA+.

We also:

- Explicitly communicate to our school community that discrimination and bullying are not tolerated – if incidents of bullying or discrimination occur, we address the incident in line with our Bullying Prevention policy
- Check in with vulnerable students and their families to confirm their needs are being met. This can occur at pick-up or drop-off, at parent teacher interviews or through informal discussions at drop off or pickup
- Seek out expert advice as needed to support inclusion - such as an occupational therapist, speech pathologist and provision and planning
- Refer to the Preventing and Addressing Racism in Schools policy on PAL which provides an extensive list of resources to strengthen our schools culture and practice to prevent and address racism.

Our Student Wellbeing and Engagement Policy provides more information about the measures we have in place to support diversity and equity.

Suitable staff and volunteers

At Marra School, we apply robust child safe recruitment, induction, training, and supervision practices to ensure that all staff, contractors, and volunteers are suitable to work with children.

Staff recruitment

When recruiting staff, we follow the Department of Education's recruitment policies and guidelines, available on the Policy and Advisory Library (PAL) at:

- Recruitment in Schools
- Suitability for Employment Checks
- School Council Employment
- Contractor OHS Management.

When engaging staff to perform child-related work, we:

- sight, verify and record the person's Working with Children clearance or equivalent background check such as a Victorian teaching registration
- collect and record:
  - o proof of the person's identity and any professional or other qualifications
  - o the person's history of working with children
  - o references that address suitability for the job and working with children.
 - o references that address suitability for the job and working with children.

Staff induction

All newly appointed staff will be expected to participate in our child safety and wellbeing induction program. The program will include a focus on:

- the Child Safety and Wellbeing Policy (this document)
- the Child Safety Code of Conduct
- the Child Safety Responding and Reporting Obligations (including Mandatory Reporting) Policy and Procedures and
- any other child safety and wellbeing information that school leadership considers appropriate to the nature of the role.

Ongoing supervision and management of staff

All staff engaged in child-connected work will be supervised appropriately to ensure that their behaviour towards children is safe and appropriate.
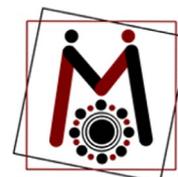

Staff will be monitored and assessed to ensure their continuing suitability for child-connected work. This will be done by regular performance reviews, ongoing professional development and a clear leadership structure ensuring accountability for every member of staff.

Inappropriate behaviour towards children and young people will be managed swiftly and in accordance with our school and department policies and our legal obligations. Child safety and wellbeing will be paramount.

Mara School will also:
- communicate regularly with staff and volunteers about the Child Safety and Wellbeing Policy and Code of Conduct in supervision meetings, at staff meetings, in newsletters and staff updates
- provide refresher child safety training for all staff and volunteers
- include child safety and wellbeing as a regular agenda item for staff meetings at all levels of the organisation
- include child safety and wellbeing goals in staff professional development plans
- monitor our risk assessment to determine what level of ongoing supervision and management is necessary, particularly if there are changes to the physical layout of the school, contractors on site, any concerns that may have been raised previously and other relevant risk factors
- ensure that all non-teaching staff, contractors, CRTS, allied health staff and other service providers (NDIS) will maintain the currency of their Working with Children Check (WWCC) and the administration team will keep copies and monitor the validity of these records

Suitability of volunteers

All volunteers are required to comply with our Volunteers Policy, which describes how we assess the suitability of prospective volunteers and outlines expectations in relation to child safety and wellbeing induction and training, and supervision and management.

Child safety knowledge, skills and awareness

Ongoing training and education are essential to ensuring that staff understand their roles and responsibilities and develop their capacity to effectively address child safety and wellbeing matters.

In addition to the child safety and wellbeing induction, our staff will participate in a range of training and professional learning to equip them with the skills and knowledge necessary to maintain a child safe environment.

Staff child safety and wellbeing training will be delivered at least annually and will include guidance on:
- our school's child safety and wellbeing policies, procedures, codes, and practices
- completing the Protecting Children – Mandatory Reporting and Other Legal Obligations online module annually
- recognising indicators of child harm including harm caused by other children and students
- responding effectively to issues of child safety and wellbeing and supporting colleagues who disclose harm
- how to build culturally safe environments for children and students
- information sharing and recordkeeping obligations
- how to identify and mitigate child safety and wellbeing risks in the school environment.

Other professional learning and training on child safety and wellbeing, for example, training for our volunteers, will be tailored to specific roles and responsibilities and any identified or emerging needs or issues.

At Marra School we are very aware that we are in a unique setting and that staff have added responsibility in managing the child safety and wellbeing of our students. Our students with disabilities have an increased vulnerability when it comes to bullying or abuse and in communicating or reporting any concerns they may have. To further address this, we have:

- robust child safety policies and procedures that are regularly reviewed and updated, with input from students, families, and staff.
- ongoing staff training and education on child safety (for both physical and online environments), identifying signs of abuse, and responding to disclosures.
- a culture where students feel comfortable raising concerns and where they have clear channels for reporting issues.

School council training and education

To ensure our school council is equipped with the knowledge required to make decisions in the best interests of student safety and wellbeing, and to identify and mitigate child safety and wellbeing risks in our school environment, the council is trained at least annually. Training includes guidance on:

- individual and collective obligations and responsibilities for implementing the Child Safe Standards and managing the risk of child abuse
- child safety and wellbeing risks in our school environment
- Marra School child safety and wellbeing policies, procedures, codes and practices

Complaints and reporting processes

Marra School fosters a culture that encourages staff, volunteers, students, parents, and the school community to raise concerns and complaints. This makes it more difficult for breaches of the code of conduct, misconduct or abuse to occur and remain hidden.

We have clear pathways for raising complaints and concerns and responding and this is documented in our school's Complaint Policy. The Complaints Policy can be found on the school website or can be requested through the administration team.

If there is an incident, disclosure, allegation or suspicion of child abuse, all staff and volunteers (including school council employees) must follow our Child Safety Responding and Reporting Obligations Policy and Procedures. Our policy and procedures address complaints and concerns of child abuse made by or in relation to a child or student, school staff, volunteers, contractors, service providers, visitors or any other person while connected to the school.

As soon as any immediate health and safety concerns are addressed, and relevant school staff have been informed, we will ensure our school follows:

- the Four Critical Actions for complaints and concerns relating to adult behaviour towards a child
- the Four Critical Actions: Student Sexual Offending for complaints and concerns relating to student sexual offending

Our Student Wellbeing and Engagement Policy and Bullying Prevention Policy cover complaints and concerns relating to student physical violence or other harmful behaviours.

Communications

Marra School is committed to communicating our child safety strategies to the school community through:

- ensuring that key child safety and wellbeing policies are available on our website including the Child Safety and Wellbeing Policy (this document), Child Safety Code of Conduct, and the Child

Safety Responding and Reporting Obligations (including Mandatory Reporting) Policy and Procedure

- displaying PROTECT posters around the school
- updates in our school newsletter and via Compass posts
- ensuring that child safety is a regular agenda item at school leadership meetings, staff meetings and school council meetings.

Privacy and information sharing

Marra School collects, uses, and discloses information about children and their families in accordance with Victorian privacy laws, and other relevant laws. For information on how our school collects, uses and discloses information refer to: Schools' Privacy Policy.

Records management

We acknowledge that good records management practices are a critical element of child safety and wellbeing and manage our records in accordance with the Department of Education's policy: Records Management – School Records

Review of child safety practices

At Marra School, we have established processes for the review and ongoing improvement of our child safe policies, procedures, and practices.

The Principal will:

- review and improve our policy every 2 years or after any significant child safety incident
- analyse any complaints, concerns, and safety incidents to improve policy and practice
- review and update the Child Safe Standards Risk Register's controls and treatments annually or after any significant child safety incident
- act with transparency and share pertinent learnings and review outcomes with school staff and our school community.
